

TRUMASTIC YOUR INTERIOR COLOUR GUIDE

Welcome to the world of True Colours – Oasis Paints and Coatings Manufactured in Sharjah, are offerings from Al Gurg Paints (part of Easa Saleh Al Gurg Group) developed to suit the unique requirements of the Pan Gulf region.

When we hear the word 'desert', we normally conjure imagery that is barren, dull and lifeless. However, at Oasis we see different. We see the desert as a beautiful landscape to add colour and life to. That is why Oasis range of Paints and Coatings, developed by Al Gurg Paints, brings a splash of freshness with a dash of colour to UAE.

Combining the twin attributes of quality and aesthetics, Oasis Paints allows you to imagine and create your own distinct personality in the desert, by adding colour and creativity to your life and your home. With a portfolio inclusive of Interiors and Exteriors, with different finishes and textures, Oasis Paints and Coatings not only offers a wide range of hues and shades, but above all offers impeccable quality.

Moreover, Oasis, in its true sense is a testimony to the Emirati indigenous technology at work. A well equipped Research and Development facility with chemists possessing a combined experience of nearly five decades, Oasis Paints and Coatings meets the regional and tropical performance requirements, since they have been developed to suit the aggressive atmospheric conditions.

So, whether it's a textured exterior of a villa or the smooth finish of an apartment, Oasis offers definite choice and option. That suits both tastes and pocket.

Oasis comes with a guarantee that they will always be TRUE TO COLOURS!

OASIS Trumastic Luxury Emulsion A low VOC emulsion consisting of acrylic latex and premium pigments; it offers high resistance to stains with superior washability.

This emulsion is available in Matt, Semi-Gloss and Silky Finishes.

OASIS Trumastic Matt Emulsion This emulsion is developed for customers who appreciate quality paints. It not only provides a robust coating with superior hiding, excellent coverage in appealing Matt Finish - across an enviable range of colours - but also combines the dual needs of superior performance and durability with a special anti-fungal additive.

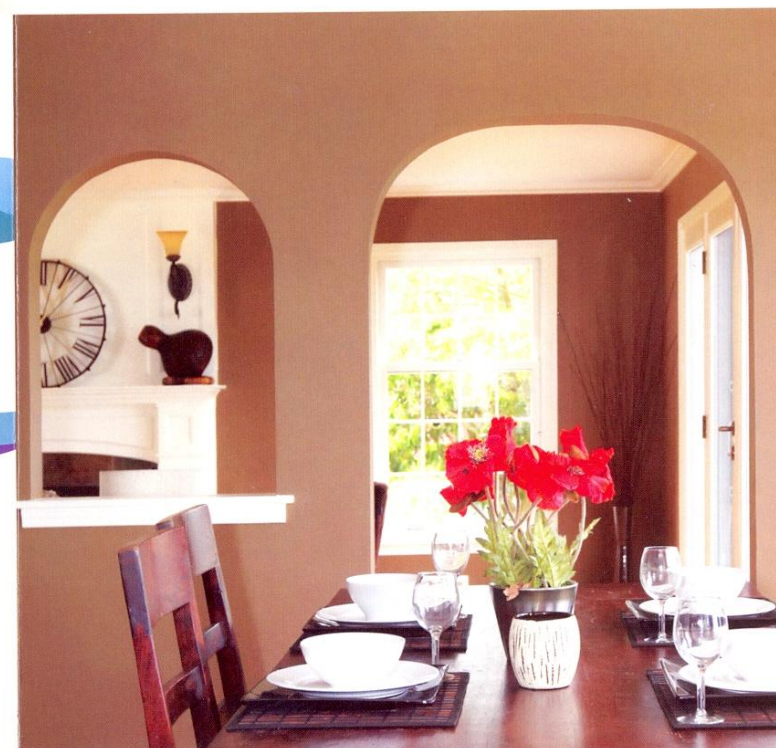

OASIS Trumastic Luxury Emulsion (Anti-Fungal) This high-end luxury coating consists of acrylic latex and high opacity micronized pigments that offers effective crack bridging and self-cleaning properties, especially designed for sensitive areas like hospitals, schools and places which require special protection from fungal and mould attacks.

This emulsion is highly user-friendly and made available in luxurious Gold and Silk finishes, truly making it a discerners' delight.

OASIS Trumastic Plastic Emulsion A copolymer emulsion that provides good coating solutions to interior walls and ceilings. Available in a wide range of colours, this coating provides high opacity, excellent coverage and is available in Matt Finish.

Simply put – it is unbelievably affordable and great value for money.

OASIS Enamels Oasis Enamel is a superior solvent/ alkyd based coating that can be applied on multiple surfaces like walls, woods and metals. It is a tough coating that offers high resistance to stains, excellent washability and easy-to-use features.

It is available in four finishes – Matt, High Gloss, Egg Shell and Premium.
It is also available for Kitchen and Bathroom in water-based sheen finish for wet areas.
